Mmm Numb. 1515.

The Daily Courant.

Saturday, February 22. 1707.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated Feb. 25.

Lemberg, January 26.

THE 19th Inſtant, at four in the Afternoon, the Czar of Muſcovy arriv'd in this City, attended by 12 Guards, and took up his Lodgings in the Palace of the Proconſul Gordon. He was ſaluted at his Entrance with a triple Diſcharge of the Cannon on our Walls: The Great General of the Crown, who arriv'd ſome Hours after, immediately waited on him. The next day the Czar viewed the Fortifications of the City and the Old Caſtle. After which he return'd to his Palace, and gave Audience to our Magiſtrates, with particular Marks of his Affection. The ſame Day he was ſplendidly entertain'd by the Great General of the Crown, and paſs'd the Evening with him. The 21ſt that General was an Hour in Conference with his Czariſh Majeſty, who afterwards gave Audience to our Chapter: And that done, he return'd to Zolkiew. The Great General of the Crown left this Place likewiſe, to go to his own Eſtate. The Prince Palatine of Cracow is gone from Volhinia, to confer with Prince Wieſnowiski his Couſin, Great General of the Crown.

Zolkiew, Jan. 26. The 23d Inſtant the Vicechancellor of the Kingdom arriv'd in this Town: He immediately waited on the Czar, who gave him a kind Reception, as did alſo his Miniſters. The 24th in the Morning he had a Conference with his Majeſty, and having taken his Leave of him went away Yeſterday to the Primate of the Kingdom. The ſame Day the Deputies of Volhinia had Audience of the Czar and Prince Menzikow, on their Complaints of Grievances from the Muſcovite Troops: Whereupon it was reſolv'd to write to Marſhal Szeremeth, that for the future better Order and Diſcipline may be obſerv'd. To Day General Rhen ſet out from hence, with his Body of Muſcovites, for Warſaw.

Jaroſlaw, Jan. 26, The Biſhop of Cujavia is come hither, and has made a Report of what was concluded in a Conference lately held between the Czar's Miniſters and ſome Senators, touching the Reſtitution of the Ukraine, and the Payment of the Millions promis'd the Army of the Republick. Yeſterday the Primate ſet out from hence for Lemberg, where the great Council is to meet the 7th of next Month.

Warſaw, Feb. 5. The 2d of this Month, 2000 Muſcovites arriv'd at Praga: This City was oblig'd to furniſh them with Proviſions for 2 Days. The 3d Advice came that ſeveral thouſand Swedes and Poles were on the March towards this City: Whereupon the Muſcovites that were here retir'd to Praga, whence we hear they have alſo decamp'd. Letters from Cracow ſay the Prince of Darmſtad arriv'd there the 25th paſt, in his Way from Vienna to Zolkiew: Some think he will be made Field-Marſhal in the Room of M. Ogilvie, who is retir'd into Saxony; but others ſay he has the Caracter of the Emperour's Ambaſſador to the Czar. The ſaid Letters add, that the 26th a certain Count paſs'd through Cracow, with Diſpatches from his Imperial Majeſty for the Czar; and that the Sword-bearer of the Kingdom ſet out from thence the 31ſt for Lemberg, leaving the Command of the City and Caſtle to the Count of Denhoff. M. Smigielski has carried 70 Muſcovites to Poſnania, where the Caſtellan of Kiovia is ſtill under Confinement. The Garriſon of Poſnania are march'd out, to diſlodge the Saxons that continue in that Neighbourhood and commit great Diſorders.

Cracow, Feb. 12. The Czar has eſtabliſh'd a Council of War, conſiſting half of Poles half of Muſcovites. He has ſent M. Potocky with a great Sum of Money to Walachia, to levy 15000 Men there. The Czar's Son is expected at Zolkiew. The Czar has ſent an Expreſs to King Auguſtus, and 'tis talk'd that King's Adherents will ſend a Deputation to him. The Waywod of Podolia has put himſelf under the Protection of the Czar.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated Feb. 26.

Leipſick, Feb. 19. The King of Sweden having treated the Electoral Prince of Saxony with all imaginable Marks of Eſteem and Affection, in a Viſit he lately receiv'd from him; is gone to Wittemberg to view Martin Luther's Tomb; after which he will take a Review of his Guards, in the Preſence of King Auguſtus and ſeveral Saxon Generals. The Swedes are urgent for King Auguſtus to pay the Sum he owes to Prince James Sobieski, and deliver up General Patkul forthwith; for whoſe Pardon however earneſt Sollicitation is made to his Swediſh Majeſty. The Swedes give out they will not leave this Country, till all the Articles of the Treaty of Peace with King Auguſtus are made good; at the ſame time they declare they will not attempt any thing againſt the Empire or its Allies.

Hamburg, Feb. 22. Letters from Poland ſay, the Muſcovite Prince Dolhorucki the Czar's chief Miniſter is arriv'd at Lemberg. Prince Menzikow is declar'd Generaliſſimo of the Muſcovite Forces: The Muſcovite General Rhen has put a Garriſon into that Caſtle of Warſaw, and lies in the Neighbourhood of the City with an Army of 20000 Men. King Staniſlaus has caus'd a Placard to be publiſh'd in Poland, forbidding all Perſons whom it may concern to repair to the great Council at Lemberg. Some Letters from Saxony ſay the King of Sweden has given Order to 10000 of his Foot to march to Poland, and that they will be follow'd by 5000 Horſe, to joyn General Leeuwenhaupt, who is to have a further Reinforcement of ſeveral thouſand Men from Pomerania. The Counteſſes Piper and Leeuwenhaupt are arriv'd here from Sweden, and intend to proceed to Saxony.

Liege, Feb. 22. The Enemy are making Tournay and Liſle as ſtrong as poſſible. The Elector of Cologne is to remove from Liſle to ſome other Place, to be out of Danger: He would be very glad to return hither, and our Burghers as much as they have ſuffer'd by him, would be as glad of his Company. Each of the 4 Canons, who with the Earl of Albemarle's Permiſſion were deputed from our Chpater to aſſiſt at his firſt Celebration of Maſs in Liſle, receiv'd a preſent of 1000 Piſtoles from him. The French Court do at this Time flatter themſelves with great Hopes of Peace; and 'tis ſaid the King has lately ſent 5 Millions abroad to forward it, and that Nancy will be the Place where the firſt Meetnig will be held for propoſing the Terms: In the mean time the Enemy do not neglect ſtoring their Magazines, and eſpecially thoſe of Namur. We have Advice from Spiers, that the Marſhal de Villars is arriv'd at Strasbourg, that his Artillery is ready, and that he will probably lay Siege to Landau forthwith; but that at the ſame time he will cauſe a Bridge to be laid over the Rhine near Fort Louis, to give Umbrage to the Allies.
